

TOPICS & DATES FOR PERCEPTION PAPERS AND PRESENTATION FALL 2010

Last Name		First Name		Topic	Date of Presentation	Presentation Position number
Joyner-Stokes	Taquisha	Importance of experience on development of perceptual system: How do you get the word out to parents and/or what toys may promote these experiences.		11-18-10	1
Mitchell	Kaitlin	Importance of experience on development of perceptual system: How do you get the word out to parents and/or what toys may promote these experiences.		11-18-10	2
Wilder	Brittany	Importance of independent movement on depth perception. Researchers believe that crawling is so important in structuring infants' experience of the world ...		11-18-10	3
Rawley	Adam	The importance of a mother's and/or father's touch on infant and child development		11-18-10	4
Sauter-Vogelsong	Cynthia	The importance of a mother's and/or father's touch on infant and child development		11-18-10	5
Urlich-Vivar	Helga	Vision Testing of Elderly for Drivers License: Is the standard visual acuity test enough		11-18-10	6
Bieber	Jordan	Athletes: What does the research suggest for those who want to improve their athletic performance?		11-23-10	1
Jaramillo	Christopher	Athletes: What does the research suggest for those who want to improve their athletic performance?		11-23-10	2
Bray	Justin	Color blindness: problems that arise and solutions to them.		11-23-10	3
Travis	Danielle	Color blindness: problems that arise and solutions to them.		11-23-10	4

Apostle	Zachary	How color affects taste and smell: Useful for consumer product tasting and others specializing in food quality (e.g., chefs, parents trying to get little ones to eat).	11-23-10	5
Nasewicz	Keith	How color affects taste and smell: Useful for consumer product tasting and others specializing in food quality (e.g., chefs, parents trying to get little ones to eat).	11-23-10	6
Narowski	Karissa	Earwitness Testimony: What are the forensic problems with this type of testimony and how might knowledge of sensation and perception help solve these problems?	11-30-10	1
Gregory	Naquila	Eyewitness Testimony: What are the forensic problems with this type of testimony and how might knowledge of sensation and perception help solve these problems?	11-30-10	2
Vos	David	Eyewitness Testimony: What are the forensic problems with this type of testimony and how might knowledge of sensation and perception help solve these problems?	11-30-10	3
Pacher	Margaret	Importance of touch to blind people: Suggestions to increase this experience.	11-30-10	4
French	Marley	Medical image perception	11-30-10	5
Willis	Holly	Pigeons as baggage screeners	11-30-10	6
Corak	Stacy	Hearing loss and aides	12-2-10	1
Hellings	Eugene	Inattentional or Change blindness in a real-world tasks (e.g., sports, driving, speed dating)	12-2-10	2
Jardine	Melissa	Infants and children perceive language fundamentals (e.g., word meaning, grammar/syntax, prosody) long before they can use language: How can this knowledge be used by parents and others interested in language development?	12-2-10	3

Lyons	Kenneth	Infants and children perceive language fundamentals (e.g., word meaning, grammar/syntax, prosody) long before they can use language: How can this knowledge be used by parents and others interested in language development? Machine Speech Recognition: Computers are not speaker independent language perceivers. Why haven't scientist been able to develop a computer that can recognize speech of any person that you or I can understand?	12-2-10	4
Rizzetto	Evan		12-2-10	5
McMurray	Travis	Vision: Argument for mandatory vision tests.	12-2-10	6